

Ryan K. Lundquist

PRACTICE AREAS

Intellectual Property
Patent Litigation

EDUCATION

Washington University in St. Louis School of Law (JD, Cum Laude)

Georgetown University (BA Economics, BA Classical Studies, 2012)

ABOUT

Ryan Lundquist is an associate at Russ August & Kabat, focusing his practice on high technology patent and intellectual property litigation.

Prior to joining Russ August & Kabat, Mr. Lundquist worked as a government contracts, business disputes, and construction litigator, garnering experience practicing in state and federal courts across the United States from Washington, D.C. to Seattle, Washington. The subject matter of his work ranged from insurance coverage issues to commercial lease disputes and from construction issues to high-dollar value, high-technology government contract bids and protests.

Mr. Lundquist earned his law degree from Washington University in St. Louis School of Law, graduating cum laude. While at WashU, he served as Symposium Editor for the Washington University Law Review. Prior to his legal career, he was an instructor of Latin and Finance at

GET IN TOUCH

 rlundquist@raklaw.com

 310.826.7474

 Los Angeles

St. Luke's School in New Canaan, Connecticut, where he was also a coach of the football, basketball, baseball, and softball teams.